THE GARLAND

If staying in North Hollywood, our experts suggest booking a night or two at The Garland, a hip property with a retro-California ambiance. “The Garland has such a cheery, bright atmosphere but it also caters to families,” says one parent. “It’s minutes from Universal Studios Hollywood and runs a free trolley to the theme park.”

It’s all about enjoying homespun family time, with board and lawn games, a swimming pool that hosts outdoor flicks throughout the warmer months, and downtime around the large outdoor fireplace. “The hotel offers seasonal activities, tourist walks through the neighborhood, and has a fabulous restaurant onsite,” says one parent.
