Why We Chose It ^

Rooms and amenities at The Garland are deliberately designed with kids in mind, making it easy for everyone in the family to have fun.

Pros

- Pet-friendly
- Robust vegan menu
- Recently renovated pool area

Cons

- Pool area gets crowded
- Rooms on the freeway side can be noisy

This family-owned hotel in the heart of Hollywood caters to parents traveling with children, thanks to its specially designed kids rooms and family suites. These rooms feature a separate kid's nook with bunk beds and a TV, and there's a taco cart in the courtyard each summer and dive-in movie screenings by the pool. Parents can bond over happy hour drinks while the kids make new friends playing board games in the courtyard.

The retro vibe and decor takes visitors back to the Golden Age of Hollywood, and convenient complimentary trolley service whisks you to and from Universal Studios daily. Rooms are clean and serviceable.

Notable Amenities ^

- Rooms and suites with bunk beds
 - Complimentary trolley service to Universal Studios
 - Poolside movie screenings
