As Southern California continues to see warm days with no chance of rain, it's a good time to start thinking once again about getting out for a day at the pool. LA's many poolside hotel restaurants not only offer a respite from the heat and sunshine, they also happen to come with some pretty fantastic drinks and food. Whether it's a staycation or an afternoon getaway to lounge by the water in the open air, here are some of LA's best poolside restaurants to enjoy.

*Health experts consider dining out to be a high-risk activity for the unvaccinated; the latest data about the delta variant indicates that it may pose a low-to-moderate risk for the vaccinated, especially in areas with substantial transmission.
