15 Dog-Friendly Hotels Where Your Pooch is the V.I.P.

From Pupcakes to Doggie Tapas and Bacon
Infused Water

We all know who man's best friend is but traveling with pets has become the norm in recent years and many hotels are adapting by rolling out the red carpet for our furry family members. While the pet pampering bar has been raised due to demand, we wanted to know exactly what perks our pets can expect from top hotels around the planet. Here are some interesting amenities and ways the hospitality industry is going above and beyond.

Personal Pup Notes

The Garland understands that pets are family, so as part of ‘Paws at The Garland,’ all four-legged friends receive a complimentary welcome dog toy, dog mat and doggy bowl with bottled water. For fur babies looking for an elevated experience, there is a special box with a tangerine-orange bandana, a treat from Executive Chef Larry Greenwood, and a doggy wastebasket with a mini flashlight. But the showstopper is a special note from The Garland’s two resort pups, Chester and Dexter. The special box is available for purchase at The Store on property.
