Like traveling with kids, nobody ever said traveling with pets was easy.

But pets are family, too, of course. And pet-friendly airlines and hotels make us happy by making it easier for pet owners to bring their best friends along on their travels.

Aug. 26 is National Dog Day. And according to results of a 2021 survey by the ASPCA, 22% of respondents who acquired pets during the pandemic say they would like to travel more – but feel limited by their pet.

Wondering where to pamper your dog and have a little getaway for yourself, too, this National Dog Day – and beyond?

The following properties do the legwork for you when it comes to rolling out the carpet for four-legged friends.

The Garland, North Hollywood, California

Dogs get the Hollywood treatment at The Garland, a boutique property in North Hollywood that only charges $75 per dog (40 pounds and under) per week. All dogs get a complimentary welcome toy, dog mat and doggy bowl with bottled water for their lapping pleasure. And you can upgrade your pet to receive a special box with a bandana and bespoke treat made by the property's executive chef. The hotel has a special dog-friendly area on-site where pooches can roam. And the concierge can point to off-leash places to head off on a hike together, like Fryman Canyon and Runyon Canyon.
